.....For the State.

The parties have filed joint application for compromise on the ground that they settled the matter amicably.

I have heard the learned Advocates for the parties and perused the application together with the deed of compromise.

It appears that the instant appeal was preferred by the convict-appellant-petitioner challenging the judgment and order of conviction and sentence passed by the court below in a proceeding relates to Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881.

It further appears that both the parties intend to amicable settlement the matter and executed a deed of agreement as evident in Annexure-I of the application for compromise. Since the parties agreed to settle the matter amicably, I am inclined to allow the application.

Accordingly, the instant application is allowed and the appeal be disposed of in terms of the application for compromise. The judgment and order of conviction and sentence dated 10.11.2020 passed by the court below is hereby set aside.

Criminal Appeal No. 11300 of 2023

The respondent-opposite party No. 2 is at liberty to withdraw the money from the court below as deposited by the convict-appellant-petitioner forthwith.

Send down the L.C. Records, if any, to the concerned court below with a copy of this order at once.
