Shahed Nuruddin, J:

By this Rule, the accused-petitioner by filing an application under Section 561A of the Code of Criminal Procedure sought for quashing of the proceedings of Sessions Case No.434 of 2015 arising out of C.R. Case No.189 of 2015 under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instrument Act,1881, now pending before the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Magura.

Material facts leading to this Rule are that, in order to discharge the loan liability the accused petitioner gave the cheque to the complainant which on presentation to the bank for encashment was dishonored on the ground of insufficiency of funds. Following the procedure and in compliance with statutory provisions laid down in section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 the complainant filed the instant case.

The learned Magistrate took cognizance of the offence and subsequently, the charge was framed by the Additional Sessions Judge, Magura. The case is now pending for trial.

Feeling aggrieved the accused petitioner preferred the instant application and obtained the present Rule on 24.07.2016.

Heard the learned Deputy Attorney General and perused the record.

On exploration of the materials on record, it transpires that the complainant categorically narrated the manner of crime committed by the accused. The learned Judge after considering the entire materials on record rightly framed the charge under the same section against the accused petitioner. Moreover, in defence the accused denied the entire allegations. So, when there is such denial, the question of innocence does not arise in this regard reliance has been placed on the case of Abdur Rahim alias A.N.M Abdur Rahman Vs. Enamul Haq and another reported in 43 DLR (AD) 173. Moreover, we can also rely upon the cases reported in 68 DLR (AD) 298, 72 DLR (AD) 79, and the case of Phoenix Finance and Investment Limited (PFIL) Vs. Yeasmin Ahmed and another reported in XVIII ADC (AD) 490. All that is required at the stage of framing charge is to see whether the prima-facie case regarding the commission of the certain offense is made out. The truth veracity and effect of evidence which prosecution proposes to adduce is not to be meticulously judged at the stage of framing charge. In the instant case, the accused stand indicted for an offense punishable under the same section. Cognizance has been taken as well the charge has been framed against the accused petitioner under the same section. We have meticulously examined the allegations made by the complainant and we find that the offence punishable under the above offence has been clearly disclosed in the instant case against the accused. We have gone through the grounds taken in the petition of Miscellaneous Case and we find that such grounds are absolutely the disputed question of facts and the same should be decided at trial. The plea of the petitioner is nothing but the defense plea. Be that as it may, the proposition of law is now well settled that based on a defense plea or materials, the criminal proceedings should not be stifled before trial; when there is a prima facie case for going for trial. In view of such facts, the grounds taken in the petition of the miscellaneous case are not the correct exposition of law. Moreso interruption of the course of Justice will set up a wrong precedent by which the course of justice instead of being advanced readily is stifled inasmuch as the grounds advanced before us are not correct or legal exposition of law.

Therefore we hold that there are sufficient grounds for proceeding against the accused petitioner for going to trial under the same section. To that end, view, we are at one with the learned Judge of the Court below regarding the framing of the charge against the accused.

In the light of the discussions made above and the preponderant judicial views emerging out of the authorities referred to above we are of the view that the impugned proceedings suffer from no legal infirmities which calls for no interference by this Court.

In view of the foregoing narrative, the Rule is discharged. The order of stay granted earlier stands vacated.

The office is directed to communicate the judgment at once.
