None appears,

..... For the petitioner

Mrs. Bilkiss Rahman Bellie, Advocate.

..... For the respondent No. 02

This is an application filed by the National Housing Authority, Housing Bhaban, Segunbagicha, Dhaka for discharging the Rule as being infructuous.

It appears that the Rule was issued on 22.11.2016 with an ad-interim order of direction the respondents not to evict the petitioner from her allotted quarter No.3/1, Section-14, Mirpur, Dhaka till 22.05.2017 subject to the condition that the petitioner shall vacate the premises within the period. After 22.05.2017 the respondents shall be at liberty to evict the petitioner from the premises.

No one appears on behalf of the petitioner.

Referring to the papers annexed with the application Ms. Bilkiss Rahman Bellie, the learned Advocate for the respondent No.2 submits that the petitioner has already handed over the flat in question on 03.05.2018. Thereafter the application authority allotted the flat to another which is Annexure-03. As such there being nothing left for adjudication in the Rule. Hence the instant Rule is liable to be discharged as being infructuous.

Heard the learned Advocate from the respondent No.2 and perused the application. In consideration of the submission made by the learned Advocate for the respondent, we are inclined to allow the application.

Accordingly, the application is allowed and the Rule is discharged as being infructuous.

Office is directed to do needful.
