Judgment on 19.02.2024.

Sheikh Abdul Awal, J:

This Criminal Appeal at the instance of the convict appellant, Md. Shah Alam is directed against the impugned judgment and order of conviction and sentence dated 15.02.2017 passed by the learned Judge, Special Tribunal No. 4, Sirajgonj in Special Tribunal Case No. 162 of 2012 arising out of G.R. No. 149 of 2012 (Ulla) corresponding to Ullapara Police Station Case No. 06 dated 06.06.2012 convicting the accused appellant under section 25B(2) of the Special Powers Act, 1974 and sentencing him thereunder to suffer rigorous imprisonment for a period of 2(two) years and to pay a fine of Taka 2000/-(two thousand) in default to suffer simple imprisonment for 2 (two) months more.

No one appears for the appellant.

In view of the fact that this petty old criminal Appeal arising out of 2(two) years sentence has been dragging before this Court for more than 6 years, I am inclined to dispose of the same.

At the time of pronouncement of judgment, it appears from the record that this Court on 07.03.2017 at the time of admission of appeal granted ad-interim bail to the accused appellant for a period of 06(six) months and thereafter, no one took any steps to extend the order of bail as a result of which the said bail was expired long before on 07.09.2017. In that view of the matter, I have no hesitation to hold that the convict appellant is a fugitive from law and justice.

In the case of Anti-Corruption Commission Vs. Dr. HBM Iqbal Alamgir, reported in 15BLC, where it has been observed by the Appellate Division that Court would not act in aid of an accused person who is a fugitive from law and justice.

In view of the above, this Appeal must fail.

In the result, the appeal is dismissed. The convict-appellant, Md. Shah Alam is directed to surrender his bail bond within 3 (three) months from today to suffer his sentence, failing which the Trial Court below shall take necessary steps to secure arrest against the convict appellant.

Send down the lower Court records at once.
