.....For the State.

The parties have filed joint application for compromise on the ground that they settled the matter amicably.

I have heard the learned Advocates for the parties and perused the application.

It appears that the instant appeal was preferred by the convict-appellant-petitioner challenging the judgment and order of conviction and sentence passed by the court below in a proceeding relates to Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881.

It further appears that both the parties intend to amicable settlement the matter for which they filed an application for compromise. Since the parties agreed to settle the matter amicably, I am inclined to allow the application.

Accordingly, the instant application is allowed and the appeal be disposed of in terms of the application for compromise. The judgment and order of conviction and sentence dated 19.03.2020 passed by the court below is hereby set aside.

Criminal Appeal No. 656 of 2021

Send down the L.C. Records, if any, to the concerned court below with a copy of this order at once.
