Heard and Judgment

delivered on: 31.01.2024.

Mustafa Zaman Islam, J:

By this Rule, the petitioners by filing an application under Article 102 read with Article 44 of the Constitution of People's Republic of Bangladesh, the petitioners obtained this Rule Nisi calling upon the respondents to show cause as to why the Public Safety Act, 2000 should not be held to be unconstitutional and void as being violative of the fundamental rights of the petitioners guaranteed by Articles 27, 31, 32 and 35 of the Constitution and/or such other or further order or orders passed as to this court may seem fit and proper.

Since a challenge against the Jana Nirapatta Ain, 2000 has ended in a dissenting judgment except on section 16 and 18(1)(Kha) of the Act, let petitioners be released on ad-interim bail to the satisfaction of the Deputy Commissioner, Dhaka in Tejgaon Police Station case no. 17 dated 09.06.2001 under section 10 of the Jano Nirapotta Ain, 2000 now pending in the Court of Metropolitan Magistrate, Dhaka.

The police report has not been yet submitted.

Feeling aggrieved the petitioners preferred the instant Writ Petition and obtained the present Rule.

No one appears on behalf of the petitioners to support the Rule.

The learned Deputy Attorney General appearing on behalf of the respondents.

In order to appreciate his submissions we have gone through the record and given our anxious consideration to his submissions.

On going to the materials on record it transpires that the case was lodged under section 10 of the Jano Nirapotta Ain, 2000.

It is pertinent to point out that the জননিরাপত্তা (বিশেষ বিধান) আইন, 2000 was repealed vide Act no. VI of 2002 dated 2nd April, 2002. Therefore, the instant proceeding has no legal force.

In view of foregoing narrative the Rule is disposed of. The proceeding of Tejgaon Police Station case no. 17 dated 09.06.2001 under section 10 of the Jano Nirapotta Ain, 2000 now pending in the Court of Metropolitan Magistrate, Dhaka is hereby quashed.

The office is directed to communicate the judgment and order at once.

Mustafa Zaman Islam

Md. Atabullah, J:

I agree.
