Judgment on 17.06.2026.

Md. Iqbal Kabir, J:

On an application under Article 102 of the Constitution of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, this Rule Nisi was issued in the following terms:

“Let a Rule Nisi be issued calling upon the respondent No. 2, Bangladesh Bank to show cause as to why a direction should not be given to dispose of the petitioner's application dated 19.06.2022 as contained in Annexure-'J' to the writ petition in connection with the petitioner's service matter and/or pass such other or further order or orders as to this Court may seem fit and proper.”

It appears that at the time of issuance of the Rule, this Court passed an order directing the respondent Nos. 2 and 4 to dispose of the petitioner's application dated 19.06.2022 as contained in Annexure-J and K expeditiously within the period of 60 (sixty) days from the receipt of a copy of this order in accordance with law.

It appears that the learned Advocate for the respondent No. 4, by filing an affidavit-in-opposition, brings notice to this Court that the direction has been complied with. In support of his submission, he took us to Annexure-2 of the affidavit-in-opposition; it is evident that the order of this Court has been complied with. According to him, nothing remains to adjudicate. We find substance in his submission.

In view of the above, the Rule Nisi is discharged as the order of this Court has been complied with.

There will be no order as to cost.

Communicate the order.

S M Saiful Islam, J:

I agree.
